

Mears, Editors : The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia P. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is scalously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this. On account of its proven merits, it is recomme and prescribed by the best physicians in the country.

One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhosa, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the co sequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, oys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always ently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaint of either sex this compound is ensurpassed as abundant testimonials show. "Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifler works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity. All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

Who is He? Suspicious Character Arrested---Other News Itemes.

ROGERSVILLE, TENN., Oct. 2, '82. MR. EDITOR: Circuit Court has been going on at this place for the past week, and is still in session. Jess Miner, who was the leading spirit connected with the incendiaryism which created such excitement several years ago, was found guilty of "tapping" Messrs. Cope & Bros', cash drawer, and sentenced to the "pen." for one year. The grand jury made out a true bill against H. K. Sams, white, far the shooting and killing of Andrew Johnson, colored, of this place, on the night of the last election. Upon failure to give bond, the amount required being $3,000, Sams was commit-

After summoning perhaps between 150 and 200 men, a jury was at length com-pleted, and the case of James King, charged with rape, taken up on Satur-day morning last. James and his brother John have both been in jail for several weeks, with different charges enough against both of them to make successful life-time convicts. They are the "Jessee" and "Frank" of the late gang of "bold bad outlaws" who have been committing their degredations in the neighborhood of Persia, this county, under the name of the "James Regulators." They are charged with numerous crimes, among the list, rape, highway robbery, catching peaceable citizens on the highway and beating them unmercifully, shooting at different parties disturbing public worship, & c., & c. Since the Kings have been caught, we have heard nothing of the rest of the gang to which it nothing of the rest of the gang, to which it is said, there was five or six belonged. WHO IS HE, AND WHAT'S HE UP TO ?

On Saturday evening last a very suspicons looking character put in an appearance on our streets, his first enquiries being as to where he could get good cheap lodging for a while, where he could buy a good pistol; then as to the business men and houses of the place, & c. He wore rather ragged clothes, is perhaps 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high has rather light hair, wears moustache and chin-whiskers, and carried his left hand in a swing. It was thought by some that he might possibly be John Taylor, the prisoner released by his brothers en the E. T., V. & G. R. R., a short time since. Notwithstanding this suspicion, but taking into consideration his general "make-up," and his suspicious enquiries, &c., Jailor Robert Cook and Capt. C. C. Spears concluded to "nab" the "gentleman," and intervew him, if nothing more. They arrested him, with little or no trouble, not allowing him a chance to offer any resistance. Upon his person they found a No. 32 Smith & Wesson pistol and a No. 22 seven shot revolver. Upon examining his hand a number of small sores, just in a state of healing up were found upon the back of it, looking as if the skip had been torn off by some means; or perhaps a charge from a shot gun, after some time, might present the same appearance. His case was at once reported to the grand-jury, and an indictment made against him for carrying pistols, and he was immediately lodged in jail. He refuses to give his name or whereabouts, and the only papers about him were two or three which he has headed "way bills," which seem to give distances from one point to another through the mountains of Kentucky. He has rather a "devil-may-dare" expression about his face, and is what one would term rather shrewd for one of his class. The mail carrier between here and Jonesville, Va., says he passed him on the road sometime du dilapidated, weather-beaten coat. From his movements, he is doubtless guilty of some serious crime, and while in the hands of the law should be extensively advertised, and turned over to parties who may need him. He had several dollars in gold and silver in his pocket, and $25 in gold sewed up in a pocket in his drawers, and begged

Politics seem to have become rather stale with our people, and but little excitement s adrift among them. In our Congressional race it is generally conceded that Maj. Pettibone will be re-elected, and that the star of the "Mountain Boy" has gone down to rise no more. We are pleased to learn from different sources of the onward and successful moves made by Captain Rule in his canvass against Old-man-afraid-of-his-record Houk. From all we can learn—and we feel so closely interested that we inquire upon every occasion— we feel confident that Captain Rule is daily gaining ground, and that election day will score him a victory that will be sufficient to cause the "minateur boss" to tuck his little Washington-gutter-bedabbled tail between his legs and "send him home to work for

One voice all over the land goes up from nothers, that says: "My daughters are so feeble and sad, with no strength, all out of breath and life at the least exertion. What can we do for them?" The answer is simple and full of hope. One to four weeks' use of Hop Bitters will make them healthy, rosy, sprightly and cheerful.

Public Speaking. To the people of the Second Congressional District of Tennessee: On last Monday I addressed the following note, which explains itself:

KNOXVILLE, September 11, 1882.

Sm: Having been, as you are aware, nominated as a candidate for Congress in the Second District Oats 100se, 33a35c.

by the Republican convention held at the court-house in Knoxville, August 24th. I court-house in Knoxville, August 24th., I desire to begin the canvass at as early a day as possible. My object in addressing you this note is to propose that we at once get out a list of appointments for a joint canvass of the district, to begin not later than one week from to day. If this meets with your approbation please suggest some one who will meet and confer a friend selected myself, for the purpose of arranging such a list of appointments. I earnestly request a reply to this note this afternoon.

Respectfully, WM. RULE. I have now waited four full days since sending Mr. Houk the above note, and he has failed to reply. The reason why, most persons will very readily infer. Nothing is left for me to do but to make a list and invite him to be present. A fair division of time will be accorded. I will address the people at the times and places given be-
